

Introduction to Neonode Workbench

Neonode Workbench is a software tool to use with zForce AIR® sensors. With Neonode Workbench it is possible to:

- Visualize sensor touches.
- Temporarily configure sensor characteristics, such as active area and scanning frequency.
- View the sensor firmware version.
- Conduct Open/Short-circuit tests to identify any damaged photo or laser diodes.