

Getting started with Touch Sensor Module Evaluation

Plug and Play

Connect the sensor and immediately get touch input to your computer.

Explore the features of the sensor module

Use the Neonode software to visualize touches and play with sensor settings.

Get started with our SDK example

Make configurations and create your own program from our example SDK.

Use the zForce Arduino Library include the sensor module to your Arduino project. Connect with I2C and use the provided functions for SW integration.